

THE CORONAVIRUS – THE MASTERMIND and HIS REASONS

The Virus, The Scare and Global Shut Down

THE WORLD had not seen anything like this before. Every government, every industry, every school, colleges, universities even churches had shut down to control the plague known as the coronavirus. All sporting events, the general source of entertainment for everyone in this country are all shut down. Arenas, coliseums, golf courses, every sport venue has closed. Restaurants, movie theaters, shopping malls, small, medium or big are all empty of crowds. Airlines have either shut down or have only limited routes serviced. Airports, usually the hub of passenger activity, are like big buildings figuring out what to do with its facilities. Employees from every industry are either furloughed, put on leave (paid, sometimes unpaid) or basically laid off (but they get the first call when business resumes). Only essential employees are reporting for work.

Hoarding of food and staple stocks was unabated weeks before the official declaration of 'shelter in place' for all people. Empty store shelves are the rule not the exception. The U.S. called by foreigners as 'the land of plenty' is becoming 'the land of empty'. Grocery stores have modified themselves to at least provide the basic needs of customers. They have installed Plexiglas 'spit' shields, marked the floor of the checkout aisles with colored tape to impose the six feet social distance among customers. They have controlled the number customers allowed into the store per hour to ensure crowding is avoided.

The traffic info announcers are at a loss for work to do. The ever present rush hour traffic jams are now just memories and driving from here to there is just a small fraction of the time it used to be. Government health agencies are concentrating all their resources for the control or extermination of this disease. Networks have installed periodic updates on the infection rate, casualties and spread of this disease together with the medical advances gained to combat it. The whole scenario of the global population is like a reality show drama expertly choreographed.

Wow! What a plague. All of a sudden, man is rendered obedient to their government and accepts restrictions on liberty of movement. Without any complaint, everyone in the world obeys their government's directives on activities and ways to avoid infection of this disease. In some countries, martial law rules are imposed. People are virtually imprisoned in their own homes!

This is amazing. Who could have thought that this singular disease could have shut down the whole world and leave its citizens trying to figure out what would be next. Would they still have jobs, schools and churches to go to after this?

The question therefore arises, who caused or masterminded all this? Is it the Chinese where it first originated due to the exotic foods they eat? They are a very good place to start this disease for they always generate viruses from their food choices. They are also secretive. By them hiding the onset and spread of this disease, the plague had taken a foothold which has become very difficult to stop. So they were used to spread this one uncontrollably.

Is it the liberal media so that the world's economy would crash and blame Donald Trump for it? Well, their forked tongue news reporting was very useful in bringing about the world-wide hysteria and scared world leaders to panic.

Maybe, certain centennial billionaires who want to control the drug industry? These young tycoon are just so enamored with their successes and numerous toys that starting a pandemic would easily wipe out their fortunes but their examples of hysteria did help in spreading the 'scare' into every soul who 'iconize' them. Theories abound on who caused this or masterminded this global scare. The blame game is erupting all over the globe but everyone is shaking their heads for this is something beyond fiction. Even religious sects are doing their best to come up with services and prayers to help control this disease. Religious leader both the good and the bad are wondering what's happening to mankind.

The mastermind of the global scare has to have the power to control everything and direct them to his objectives and purposes. He has to have the wherewithal to control minds and emotions; to direct them to do things they never even did know they could do.

Would that be Satan? Oh, how he would love to have people believe he did this. In fact, he relishes the idea that most religions point to him as the source of all evil. For everyone's information, "Good things and evil, life and death, poverty and riches are from God." (Ecclesiasticus 11:14) To those who uses bibles outside of the true one, The Douay Rheims Catholic Bible, rev. 1752, they do not have the so-called Wisdom books, like this one, they would not know of how to obey and serve God. Always remember, Satan cannot do anything without God's permission (Book of Job).

If the mastermind is of the nefarious kind, all mankind right now would be in trouble. The mastermind is a benevolent one? Yes, He is! So Who is He anyway?

The Mastermind and His Purpose

God, of course! He is the Mastermind of this global scare. Even if all the governments and their leaders conspire to do the same thing, unless they use military force and annihilate millions, they could not do what God did. The timing of the events leading to this global shut down is masterfully planned and orchestrated. Only in the movies could this be emulated! Look at the timeline of this plague, it is a sequence that no one could scheme. Only God has the power to do so. No shots fired, no military action taken to force the global shut down. Every human being is now kept almost imprisoned in their own homes.

The full blown pandemic and shutting down during Lent is no coincidence. He timed it during the Lenten season so that we would remember that He sent His Son to die for us. He wants the whole world to remember His Son's great sacrifice on Calvary. He loves us so much that He mustered all He could to bring this objective to fruition. He wants all of mankind to observe the solemnity of the Lenten observances and walk along the footsteps of His Son. By observing the fast and abstinence required during Lent and participating in ceremonies observing the Passion of Jesus Christ, each person would remember His suffering and would move closer to becoming a true servant of God.

A true servant loves his Master more than his life, for he knows without his Lord, he is reduced to nothingness. God is calling the people whom He called 'His inheritance' to come back to Him. He wants us to join Him in His kingdom. But mankind is so steeped in pleasure and needless leisure that God, the strict Schoolmaster – locks everyone in their classrooms until they behave. Limiting their food and activity He is waiting for them to show change. Within a span of a month, He has taken everyone's pleasure and leisure activities. The regular haunts and jaunts are taken away. Mankind was sent to home detention until further notice or after an attitude change.

Just a small note here: Satan would not want to take any of mankind's leisure and pleasure activities. He wants them to enjoy themselves while strolling along their merry, slippery, sloping way to Hell.

Why the Disease and Shut Down

He is evening up the playing field. There are people He has made for His own inheritance – the elect. But the evil one and the world has such a stranglehold on everything that His elect are in confusion and do not know what to do. The deck is stacked against God's elect. Thousands of different religions are attracting them. Paganism is seeping into their subconscious activities.

Even His own Catholic Church has been divided into two factions: the Novus Ordo (NO) Church, so-called because of the Novus Ordo (NO) Mass generated by Vatican II (V2) of 1962 and the Traditional Catholic Church (TCC), called as such, for its adherence to the Tridentine or Traditional Latin Mass (TLM) so named for the Mass formulated by the Council of Trent (1545-1563). They also defend and keep the Traditions, canons, laws and dogmas promulgated from the time of St. Peter up to onset of V2.

The TCC was initially led by Arch. Marcel Lefebvre who founded the Society of St. Pius X. He was the vanguard of the small band of clergy that saw the diabolical disorientation happening with the liturgical, sacramental and canonical changes being made by V2. Unbeknownst to most of them, the V2 had already initiated changes in Asian Catholic countries before the formalization of the edicts of V2.

Arch. Lefebvre started the SSPX to ensure a fresh crop of clergy immune from the V2 influence and to defend the TLM. He ordained several bishops to ensure that if he dies, the continuity of the true and faithful TCC and TLM will continue. For this, the V2 issued an excommunication edict. Most Catholics like me, at that time, thought the SSPX group as evil ones. Little did we know that the SSPX are the true shepherds of The True Shepherd, Jesus Christ. Because Arch. Lefebvre was establishing dialogue with V2 pope of that time, several of his anointed clergy separated themselves from his group and they are now known as the Sedevacantists (Sedes). The Sedes do not recognize the V2 popes as true vicars of Christ because of their heretical teachings and affiliations. V2 immediately started a media barrage of denouncing the Sedes as having now clerical value nor authority to administer any sacraments. Almost all Catholics believed that including this person. The passing of Arch. Lefebvre left the SSPX in a very weak leadership which eventually is now as modern as the NO Church. The world is now left in the hands of a small of band, the Sedes, to defend the true Catholic Church and be the sole conduit of God's graces for mankind in all these times. Why? Because their TLM is now the only untainted, unmodified, unaltered Latin Mass faithful to the Council of Trent. And their priests were all ordained using the Holy Order rubrics before V2. Why is this important? It is important because those prescribed words and actions proceeding to the ordination of a priest were necessary to obtain for him the graces to be the Alter Christus (Another Christ). With the alteration of the sacramental rubrics by V2, especially the Holy Orders, we have a church full of priests who are sexual predators, deviates and publicity hungry leaders especially the one from Argentina, who heads the Vatican. They do not promote the laity's salvation. The NO Church, in trying to keep Traditional Catholics from leaving, first, instituted religious orders to train for saying the TLM. Then, they removed the rules preventing the TLM from being celebrated anywhere. Thus, many Traditional Catholics thought they are now attending an authentic TLM. V2 calls this mass 'The ExtraOrdinary (EO) Form of the Latin Rite. Why is this questionable? Because the V2 ordained priests were ordained by prelates who were ordained using the altered Holy Orders. As such, a false priest cannot ordain another to be a priest! So all those EO masses are said by non-priests! No grace at all!

There were some sexual predators and deviates before 1962 but the TCC at that time had rules to deal with them and to expel them. V2 played the press and public opinion to think that they have nothing to do with these problem clergy. V2 removed all the psychological screening tests of the TCC to detect hidden sexual predators and deviates and the rules that would have expelled them.

Why Defend the Traditions and Liturgy of the TCC?

The Roman Catholic Church is the only church founded by Jesus. Its main objective is to foster and promulgate all that Jesus taught and did, especially the proper dispensation of the Seven Sacrament for the sanctification of man. The TCC is the only church that has its goal to produce saints. For they follow Jesus' command to the letter, "Be ye holy therefore, for thy Heavenly Father is holy!" The parable of the invited guest without the proper attire is best example of why the TCC does what it does.

With this background of the chaotic state of the Roman Catholic Church, and His elect now turned to reprobate-elect, God has to intervene.

Forced Lenten Retreat

The incontrovertible fact that this full blown disease became as such during Lent is no coincidence. Lent is the proper time to sequester everyone to their homes. Willingly or unwillingly they are now united with their family members. Each one has to re-introduce themselves to each other either as parent or child. They are beginning to be a family. With the dwindling supplies, the family has to work everything out to make things work and last.

He forced everyone on a fast and abstinence lifestyle akin to a Lenten retreat. A spiritual retreat is always observed like a sabbatical to re-orient a person's lifestyle and to re-focus on the proper direction in life. This is the one of the reason for the scare: To re-orient man to look to God as his only Provider, Benefactor and Protector and to re-learn his main purpose in life – to serve, adore and love his Maker. By doing so, man will learn again how to work out his salvation in order to join his Maker after this life.

What does He wanted us to do?

1. He wants us to know Him – again. Mankind has forgotten Him, the Father and Creator Who gives us all the that we need even providing extra when we properly ask Him.

God, Our Father

Abba, Our Eternal Father

"Clouds and darkness are round about Him: justice and judgment are the establishment of His throne." (Psalm 96:2)

(As He appeared to Mother Eugenia Elisabetta Ravasio, July 1, 1932)¹

[This picture explains Jesus' words to Philip, "Philip, he that seeth Me seeth the Father also. How sayest thou, show us the Father?" (John 14:9)] They really are one and the same, including looks.

To make sure that people could identify Him as Our Father, He actually appeared, as a Man, to Mother Eugenia Ravasio in July 1, 1932 in Bergamo Italy. Here is how the artist's rendition of The Eternal Father from the description by Mother Eugenia. This apparition was approved by His Excellency, Alexandre Caillot, Bishop of Grenoble, in 1946, after a decade of investigation.

2. To remind mankind again of His incomprehensible love for us that He has to suffer the death of His Dearly Beloved Son so that Heaven's gate will be open again for us. "God so loved the world, as to give His only begotten Son...." (John iii. 16) Because He loves us He wants us to love Him and His Son.

The Last Vision of Fatima²
(Tuy, Spain, June 13, 1929)

The above picture was described to an audience in the Philippines with The Father speaking, "For love of you, my children, I have given My Dearly Beloved Son as a Sacrifice for your salvation. I welcome you with open arms to My kingdom paid for by His life and blood. I will not tire waiting for your coming."

Come to think of it, is there a father out there who will send his only dearly beloved son to another country to help his relatives there with the knowledge that his son will be tortured and killed by the self-same relatives he will help? Would any one of us do it? I don't think I can? Just this thought should make us love The Only Father Who did do such a thing. Conversely, if you are the son would you go and knowing that you will be killed? Constant viewing and contemplating of this picture alone would surely make one love the Son, also. I know, because it did to the author.

Lent is the liturgical season of the year preceding Easter and is the proper season to contemplate all that our Saviour has to experience and suffer to accomplish His mission for The Father.

Holy Week

Today is Palm Sunday, start of Holy Week and it behooves us to remember and meditate in this price of our salvation. "The Passion of the Christ" by Blessed Anne Catherine Emmerich would be good reading. If you want the concise version, the movie of the same title by Mel Gibson, Icon Productions would be a good one to see. He has the second version with less of the brutalities shown in the first edition. Still with young children, you might give them some briefing of what is coming. By the way, the brutality in the first was not exaggerated. The movie is precise to the descriptions of the suffering of Our Savior as related by Bl. Emmerich. Only the callous or the unrepentant person would not be touched and actually shed tears seeing how we were redeemed by Jesus. Be advised to have handkerchiefs ready for this viewing. Now all we need is Mr. Gibson to stream this great movie free throughout Holy Week that everyone would see the Passion of Jesus.

3. In addition to this, He wants to remember Hell does exist. He doesn't want us to go there. The NO Church has failed their followers by not mentioning this truth to bring people to repentance and conversion. To think that the NO's rule over 99% of all Catholics in the world. These billions of Catholics are in eternal jeopardy in the hands of NO's. The Sedes are always on this subject in their discourse. St. Alphonsus di Liguori preaches us to avoid Hell:

The Holy Spirit says, "In all thy works remember thy last end, and thou shalt never sin" (Ecclesiasticus 7:40). He who often meditates on the four last things namely, death, judgment, and the eternity of Hell and Paradise will not fall into sin. But these truths are not seen with the eye of the body; the soul only perceives them. If they are not mediated on, they vanish from the mind; and then the pleasures of the senses present themselves, and those who do not keep before themselves the eternal truths are easily taken up by them; and this is the reason why so many abandon themselves to vice, and are damned. All Christians know and believe that they must die, and that we shall all be judged; but because they do not think about this often, they will live far away from God.

God wants us to avoid Hell by prayer and frequent reception of the sacraments, especially Confession and Holy Communion. All the saints prescribed prayer as the only key to salvation. St. Paul tell us to "Pray without ceasing" St. Augustine preaches that if Jesus, the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, spends most of His off times in prayer, how much more we mere mortals, more susceptible to temptations and sinning need to do the same. He decreed that The Father does not grant anything to anyone unless they ask for it. Jesus instructed us to "Ask and you shall receive." How do you ask? By proper prayer. We have to pray well. Another blog will provide preparatory prayers used by the author for the last two and half decades, in gaining the love of prayer and the favors petitioned for.

4. He wants mankind to avail of the science of the saints by reading their works. Spiritual reading is like heavenly dew that waters the arid soul of a Catholic. A good place to start is St. Alphonsus' "Sermons for All The Sundays in The Year" it is available, free, for download at www.catholicapologetics.info/scripture/newtestament/liguori.pdf. Catholic e-books are available for free at www.traditionalcatholic.co/free-catholicbooks/ Always read books by the Saints, the Blesseds or the Venerables, for they are already in Heaven. Knowledge is always power, especially of the spiritual kind, in saving one's soul. Limited use of cell phones and other electronic devices will help turn attention into this spiritual exercise. Avoid bad books and movies.
5. Now that all NO churches are closed, therefore no more NO and EO Masses. He has taken this opportunity to introduce mankind to the only true Mass that is acceptable to Him, the TLM said by the Sedes. The TLM is the most important and powerful prayer known to mankind as preached by the ancients of the church. It is the only unbloody Sacrifice of Calvary available to mankind right now.

The Sedevacantists have a webcast of their Sunday, Holiday and daily Masses at: www.sggresources.org/product/webcasting-the-liturgy-to-the-world. Their Mass webcast times are 8:25 AM daily during the school year. Sundays are 4:30 AM, 6 AM (High Mass), 8:30 AM and 2:45 PM, all are Pacific times. Consult their weekly bulletin at their website to get schedules of any other additional Mass webcast. It said in Latin. How could you follow the true Mass? Download The New Roman Missal, 1937 by Fr. Lasance at: www.ccwatershed.org. It has the directions on how to follow the Mass the meaning of each prayer. Prayers are in Latin with English translation beside it. You would have to switch from the Common of the Mass to the Propers and vice versa as the Mass progresses. You need to read the instructions for using this Missal to follow the Mass.

Or, the easier way is using your tablet or big screen cell phone, go to www.divinumofficium.com and you could download their complete book. Click either 'Desktop' or 'Mobile'. The next window select "Divino Afflatu" version, then click 'English' for the Language. Over this box, click 'Sancta Missa'. Make sure you have the right date set properly. This will give you the whole Latin Mass for the day starting with the Common of the Mass through the Propers back to the common continually on the screen, all you do is just scroll. The difference is that they use modern English not the 'old' English used by Fr. Lasance. The author uses the Fr. Lasance missal.

In Conclusion

We have seen what God could do as a disciplinarian Father. Everything that happened had left no one severely hurt except those afflicted with the disease and those who died of it. The mortality rate for this disease is amazing in a sense because it does even come close to 1.00% of the world's population. Besides those who passed away more likely met their predetermined life's clock expiration or their own personal chastisement. By this disease's scare and shut down He has shown us His benevolent Disciplinarian side. We do not want to face Him as the judge. Even the saints tremble before their last breath, wondering whether they had done all that were expected of them. So let us heed what St. Paul says, "With fear and trembling work out your salvation." (Philippians 2:12)

If we do not, all God has to do is step aside. The whole world, at the present, He has set up ripe for the ascendancy of the one who would control the distribution of goods with the proper numbering system - the beast of revelation, the Anti-Christ. Pray well, read well and live well - God's way, and everything will return to what they were before. Just like that commercial, as if nothing happened.

The Blessed Trinity

Forgive us, O loving Father, for we provoked Thee to give us this chastisement because we completely forgot Thee in our daily lives. We thank Thee for loving us still, and giving us Jesus. Thank You, Lord Jesus for dying for us. Thank Holy Spirit for fortifying us in this chastisement which we called upon ourselves. O Most Blessed Trinity give us Thy graces that we may live our lives docile to Thy will that we may merit Thy company here and in the next. Amen.

O Queen of Heaven and mother of us all, cease not to pray for us that God's mercy will be always with us till our last breath. Amen.
