

Abba, Our Eternal Father

“Clouds and darkness are round about Him: justice and judgment are the establishment of His throne.” (Psalm 96:2)

(As He appeared to Mother Eugenia Elisabetta Ravasio, July 1, 1932)

A Glorious Father’s Day to Thee, Abba, Our Father.

We thank Thee, Abba, our Father for the gift of life. Thou has created all the wonderful things of this world for us, miserable and unworthy sinners. We vow to use them well to return Thee profit, pleasure, joy and happiness for creating us.

We thank Thee for sending us Jesus as Thy expression of love for us, to save us by His death and resurrection. Thou hast pleased that Thy fullness should dwell in Jesus and through Him Thou hast reconciled all things to Thyself.

We thank Thee for sending us the Holy Ghost by whose gifts, fruits and beatitudes Thou has prepared us to be Thy own tabernacles.

We thank Thee for giving us the Blessed Virgin Mary, our Mother, to be our Mediatrix and Advocate in Heaven and through her Thou has given us the graces and blessings we need for this life and to make it in the next.

To Thee we give the gift of our free will, the only thing in creation that Thou dost not own and surrender ourselves entirely to Thee, Who art our only Benefactor, Provider and Protector.

To Thee † together with Thy Son and Thy Holy Spirit we give constant honour, glory, praise and thanksgiving forever and ever. Amen.
